

Please do not change the privacy act. It has been really nice to be able to sit down to dinner without the phone ringing. It was really annoying to have answer it just to have to argue with someone about a product you don't want. Again please leave the privacy act as it is. If we had wanted to be bothered by telemarketers, we wouldn't have put our names on the no call list.